

Eric Tomlon, FACHE, MBA/MSHA

Executive Profile

Eric Tomlon currently serves as the VP/Chief Operating Officer for Dignity Health Medical Group in Phoenix Arizona. He has 25 years of health administration experience in both hospitals and medical groups, 18 years of which as VP or C-level executive.

Summary - Eric obtained his MBA and Masters of Science in Health Administration from the University of Colorado at Denver. He is a Fellow in the American College for Health Care Executives, and Member of the Medical Group Management Association. Areas of experience include operational leadership, medical staff leadership and governance, human resources, strategic and operational planning, and physician/hospital alignment strategies. His career has included positions with for-profit, not-for-profit, Children's hospitals, Catholic, academic and independent health systems. Key strengths – healthcare operations, physician relations and building physician alignment strategies with hospitals and health systems.

Professional and Community Experience - ~ 8 years as a hospital operations VP, 1 year as a hospital CEO, and 12 years as medical group Chief Operating Officer. Multi-site, regional and national management experience. Experience with Sun Health System, Dignity Health - AZ, Honor Health, Banner Health, University of Colorado Health System, Columbia/HCA, Hospital Sisters Health System and The Children's Hospital in Denver, CO. Served on all types of community organizations including the Regent's Advisory Council for the Arizona and Colorado Chapter for the American College of Health Care Executives, Colorado Health Administration Alumni Association, Paradise Valley Community College Advisory Council, Rotary Club, Greater Phoenix Economic Council and other community organizations.